

WEEKLY BAZOO.

SEDALIA, MO.

TUESDAY JUNE 15, 1886.

Announcements.

We are authorized to announce Richard Field as a candidate for the office of judge of the circuit court for the sixth judicial district, subject to the decision of the democratic primary election to be held on Saturday the 17th day of July.

We are authorized to announce Wm. H. Letcher as a candidate for the office of judge of the circuit court for the sixth judicial district, subject to the decision of the democratic judicial convention.

WEATHER REPORT.

Corrected daily for the BAZOO by C. G. Taylor, Horologist and Optician, No. 108 Ohio street, for the twenty-four hours ending at 9 o'clock p. m., June 12, 1886.

TIME.	TEMP.	BAR.	WIND.	WEATHER.

Extremes, 65 and 84.

MERE MENTION.

The Central hotel shaving parlor, just opened, corner Sixth and Ohio streets, will be the great attraction, having everything first-class there.

R. H. Ewert yesterday received the returns from a car load of hogs recently shipped to St. Louis and the result was extremely satisfactory.

James H. Canada died at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, of spinal meningitis, aged 17 years, and will be buried from Antioch church, at 11 o'clock a. m. to-day.

City Marshal Jackson has a hard time with the "roughs" of Sedalia, but he does his whole duty, nevertheless, and his effort should be appreciated by all good citizens who love law and order.—Houstonia Banner.

Tim Couch fell in a fit on Ohio street yesterday morning, and, while lying unconscious, lost a $20 bill which he had been carrying in his hand. The money was subsequently recovered and given into Couch's keeping when he was able to go home.

The office furniture in the city hall offices has been revarnished and repainted and many other improvements made. City Clerk Thompson has had his desk converted into a standing one and purchased a stool so that when tired standing he can rest himself. Water Commissioner Rosse attempted to confiscate the chair vacated by the city clerk, but was unsuccessful.

County School Commissioner R. M. Scott informs us that a great many of the applicants for teacher's certificates this year have failed to pass examination. This is a sad state of affairs for our school district, and it is to be hoped this will not continue through the whole season. Mr. Scott's questions are simple, yet practical, and certainly teachers should be able to answer at least one-half of them, or give up trying to teach.—Houstonia Banner.

What Science Offers You. Use no liniments, salves or lotions. Benson's Caprine Plasters are best. Quick, highly medicinal. 25 cents.

A Dastardly Outrage.

Officer Fifer yesterday informed a BAZOO reporter that a man by the name of Williams, residing at 1311 East Third street, has recently been guilty of a most contemptible piece of meanness. Being annoyed somewhat by the visitations of his neighbor's chickens, he had adopted the plan of placing poisoned bread in his yard for lunch for the predatory fowls. In consequence of this action on the part of Williams there has been great mortality among the chickens of the neighborhood. If the charges made against this vindictive enemy of the hen roost can be substantiated, he should be severely punished.

The renowned Dr. Clendenning says one-third of all his deceases show signs of Heart Disease; if you have it in any form, use Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator, $1. per bottle at druggists.

Travel in a Special Car.

Dr. Aug. Fleischmann, president of the Missouri State Pharmaceutical association, yesterday received information that about forty druggists from St. Louis will be in attendance at the eighth annual meeting, to be held at Sweet Springs on Tuesday and Wednesday next. The St. Louis party will leave Monday night by special car in charge of Mr. John S. Moffitt, chairman of the committee on entertainment, and among the party will be the following druggists: Mr. W. Alexander, J. M. Good, Chas. Klie, Geo. Ude, F. W. Senawald, Gustavus Koke, J. W. Tomforde, Otta A. Wall, E. W. Sinclair, Gustavus Meyer, Chas. Curtman and others. About 500 delegates from all portions of the State are expected to be present. Among the principal business to be transacted is the discussion of tax on alcohol used in medicine, arts and by manufacturers, and the adoption of some plan by which influence can be brought to bear on congress to do away with the tax.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gum, allays all pains, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

PERSONAL.

Joe Mayer left yesterday for St. Louis, to attend the races.

Dan Y. Wheeler and family left yesterday afternoon for Sweet Springs.

Capt. Albert Parker visited Warrensburg yesterday and returned last night.

Mrs. Frankie Price, of Rock Falls, Ill., is visiting S. W. Whipple's family.

C. H. Dutcher, of the State Normal School, Warrensburg, was in the city yesterday.

Vincent Terry came down from Kansas City yesterday and returned home on the afternoon train.

John E. Finnegan, the well-known insurance agent, returned yesterday from a trip through Texas.

Dr. W. E. Homes, wife and children, of Parsons, left yesterday for a few days' sojourn at Sweet Springs.

Gov. Jno. S. Marmaduke came up from Jefferson City yesterday afternoon and departed for Sweet Springs at 4:15 p. m.

R. W. Nichols, of Saline county, was in the city yesterday, en route home from Clinton with his daughter, who has been attending Baird college.

Capt. Chas. A. Pratt, his daughter Nora, Mrs. C. A. Jones and son and Mrs. Charles Jouny arrived from Jefferson City yesterday afternoon, en route to Galveston.

E. J. Smith left Friday night for St. Louis on professional business, and will return on Monday. He was accompanied as far as the Future Great by his little son, who goes to Ohio to visit relatives.

Quite a large number of pupils came up from Clinton yesterday morning, en route to their respective homes from Baird college. Among those who stopped over here were Stella Zallinger, of Ottumville; Mamie Pommer, of California; Clara Windsor, of Brownsville.

Prof. Stahl, of the University, returned last night from Clinton, where he went to attend the commencement exercises of the Baird college. From there he went on an excursion with the teachers and pupils to Springfield, Mo., and reports a most enjoyable time.

Henry Lamm and C. E. Meserly arrived home from Eldorado Springs Friday evening. They report a good lot of people at the Springs. F. B. Meyer is still at the Springs, and reported so improved in appetite that he is eating everything he can reach and his general health so much better that he has a serious notion of walking home in the course of the next ten days.

A Broken Arm.

Arthur Daniels, an orphan colored boy of twelve years, who aspired to be a jockey, had all such ideas knocked silly yesterday afternoon. He was riding a horse owned by A. L. Goodwin, when the animal became frightened and ran away, colliding with a lamp post at Main street and Washington avenue. Young Daniels had his left fore arm fractured, his face peeled and his back injured, and for this reason he no longer desires to be a jockey. Dr. Ed. N. Small set the broken limb, and the boy was taken to the home of his aunt, near the brewery.

Contemplated Horse Show.

Col. B. F. Dowler and others are making an effort to get up a horse show for the latter part of July, the same to be held at Siche's park. It is the intention to invite the farmers of half a dozen neighboring counties to participate, and place on exhibition the blooded and valuable animals of this section of the state. An undertaking of this kind will in nowise interfere with the fair, and if it is held it will certainly prove beneficial to all interested. The initiatory steps will be taken within a day or two, and the BAZOO will keep its readers posted.

"An Infamous Liar."

A few days ago the BAZOO published, under the caption of "Calhoun, Cullings," a correspondence from that place, giving an account of an alleged shooting match between the gun clubs of Calhoun and Montrose. It was stated in the correspondence that Mr. J. W. Keyser, a Calhoun merchant, had dropped $50 in backing the home club. The BAZOO had every reason to believe that the item was straight, hence published it. That it was not, however, is shown by the following letter from Mr. Keyser, which is self-explanatory:

EDITOR BAZOO: My attention has been called to an article in your issue of the 4th, headed, "Calhoun Cullings—An Interesting Shooting Match." etc. You will permit me to say that your correspondent is an infamous liar, and there is not one single word of truth in the whole article, as no such shooting match has ever occurred here. Will you be kind enough to send me his name. I would like it distinctly understood that I am no gambler—never have been and never expect to be—and that as a business man and a Christian gentleman I object to being advertised to the world as a gambler, or to having my name used in any such connection.

Very truly yours,
J. W. KEYSER.

Look out for Your Head.

No matter what parts it may finally affect, Catarrh always starts in the head, and belongs to the head. There is no mystery about the origin of this direful disease. It begins in a neglected cold. One of the kind that is "sure to be better in a few days." Thousands of victims know how it is by sad experience. Ely's Cream Balm cures colds in the head and catarrh in all its stages. Not a snuff nor a liquid. Applied with the finger to the nostrils.

Going to Kentucky.

Prof. C. B. Johnson, late of the Pilot Grove institute, was in the city yesterday morning, en route home from Kentucky. To a representative of the BAZOO he stated that he had consummated arrangements for taking charge of a school at Unionville, Union county, Ky., and will depart for there as soon as settles up his business in the west. The professor is one of the most able educators in Missouri, and success is assured him wherever he may locate.

CRIMINAL CHRONICLES.

Proceedings in the Police and Justices' Courts Yesterday—Notes of Interest.

Business was not rushing in the police court yesterday, there being only three offenders arraigned, and they were, as Judge Levens remarked to the BAZOO chronicler, a very unprofitable crowd, not a nickel being realized from the outfit. A plea of guilty was entered in each case, and in default of payment of the fines assessed, another addition was made to the rather already large number of Marshal Jackson's boarders.

Calvin Welch for vagrancy was fined $5.

Maude Rush, a tough and abandoned prostitute, was assessed $5 on the charge of late hours.

B. E. Lewis was charged with drunkenness and carrying concealed weapons. He pleaded guilty to the former charge, but claimed that he was entitled to the privilege of carrying concealed weapons as he was travelling through the country. He was fined $5 on the charge of drunkenness, and the case of carrying concealed weapons was continued, in the absence of the necessary witnesses to prove the charge.

CRANKY CLAIR.

John J. Clair, the bald-headed, crazy nuisance, who resides north of the railroad and who is never satisfied unless making things very uncomfortable for his neighbors, was arrested yesterday on the complaint of S. N. Lewis, charging him with insulting the complainant's mother by violent and obscene language. He was released on his own recognizance to appear before Justice Halstead to-morrow morning. Mr. Lewis and Clair are neighbors, and a feud has long existed between the two families, caused by the sometimes almost unbearable conduct of Clair, who should either be muzzled or sent to the lunatic asylum.

LAST NIGHT'S ARRESTS.

The police reaped quite a harvest shortly after the midnight hour last night. Among the captives were three ex-convicts who arrived from Jefferson City yesterday afternoon. According to information received by the police, it seems that these three were the members of a gang who proposed to centralize at this city, and then thoroughly organize for their work of robbery. The names given by them are Stephen Mullen, who is charged with being drunk and committing a nuisance. John Frazer, slated for the same charge, and G. A. Fendley, arrested for late hours under suspicious circumstances.

John Henry Summers, the one-armed bum and hopeless nuisance, was run in and stated for the same old charge of drunkenness.

A. Q. Cameron, the well-known wild cat insurance agent, and for a few days past engaged in an attempt to sell nursery trees, was found in a drunken condition at a late hour on Osage street, and given quarters in the cooler, as he was in no condition to go home to his family.

CRIMINAL NOTES.

The midnight addition to Marshal Jackson's guests filled the cooler to overflowing.

Recorder Levens now keeps a complete record of all cases brought before him. This is something new in the history of the police court.

One of the most abandoned and altogether tough crowds which have been under the same roof at one time will Sunday in the cooler to-day.

The two women confined in the cooler, tough as they are, enter serious protests against the ribald conduct and obscene language indulged in by the male prisoners.

A warrant was yesterday issued by Judge Halstead for the arrest of Wright Colbert, charged by Carrie Tribble with assaulting one Millie Tribble on the 11th inst.

The scheme of diverting the police force into night and day forces, adopted by the new administration, seems to work admirably and gives better satisfaction to the majority of the officers.

Under the new administration much has been done to abate the measures of loud-mouthed, drunken rowdies, prowling the streets at unseemly hours at night and in the early morning hours, but there is yet much room for improvement in this direction.

There are quite a number of brazen faced colored prostitutes in the city who make it their business to promenade the principal thoroughfares in the city, congregate at the general places of public resort, and insult unprotected ladies and all others whose displeasure they incur.

The marshal and police force have done much to abate the nuisance of the numerous shameless prostitutes now infesting the city, and whose conduct on the streets had become a positive eye sore to all decent people, but much yet remains to be done in this direction. In several parts of the city, notably west Main street, a number of these brazen creatures, both black and white, are accustomed to stand at their doors and sit at their windows and boldly solicit customers.

SWEET SPRINGS SPRAY.

The Saratoga of the West Comes to the Front With a Budget of Society Salad.

Mrs. J. A. Fisher and Miss J. M. Allen left a few days ago for Sedalia.

The band arrived here on the 12th and the hotel proper opened for the season.

Dr. S. S. Laws, president of the Missouri State University, expects to occupy his cottage here about the 20th inst.

Mrs. Senator Vest is expected at Sweet Springs next week, and will be joined by the senator when congress adjourns.

Col. Vincent Marmaduke and wife will be up next week, as will also G. J. Meyer and family, of St. Louis. Quite a delegation of St. Louis society people will be here during the military encampment.

Miss Dora Hall's sparkling blue eyes blend charmingly with the clear blue azure skies, now favoring us, while her vermilion-hued cheeks mingle among the roses, adding fresh beauty to surrounding scenes.

Professors Johnson and Clarke, with their corps of engineers (students) from Washington University, are still here, surveying the grounds and surroundings, locating imaginary railroads and, from appearances at eventide, selecting depots in front of several cottages. Some of the students seem to have heart in their work and ought to succeed.

S. G. Price, book-keeper and cashier at the Sweet Springs hotel, is one of the most clever gentlemen the BAZOO's correspondent has ever had the pleasure of meeting, and, with J. A. Fisher as a side-partner, it is safe to say that guests will be well cared for. Mr. Price is a ladies' man in the truest sense of the word, and nothing gives him more pleasure than in providing for their entertainment and happiness. Long may he live.

Among the late arrivals are George B. Lord and wife, Olathe, Kansas; R. S. Alexander and family, St. Louis; R. E. Pinckney and wife, Kansas City; Judge John W. Henry, Jefferson City; Hon. John Cosgrove, Booneville; P. C. Boyer, J. W. Robertson and M. G. McGinniss, of Marshall; R. F. Doyle, of Moberly; E. B. Alburton, Kansas City; H. Dooly, of Chicago; A. Gluck, Dodge City, Kansas, and W. C. Battey, Rome, Georgia.

Pleased With the Expose.

A few weeks ago the BAZOO published a couple of columns ventilating W. H. Bailey, a member of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, and yesterday the following letter was received from a gentleman who is well aware of Bailey's numerous shortcomings:

"Private advices from Shawnee, O., state that your expose of W. H. Bailey caused great commotion. The Knights of Labor called a special meeting and adopted an investigating resolution. They telegraphed Powderly, and also Bailey, and threatened violence to Father Hannan. Now, if you are 'on' to the way Bailey kept books at St. Louis, and as to his speculating in wheat through a broker at Lima, Ohio, it would be readable. If you need information I will furnish you a 'pointer.'"

Crops and Politics.

Herman Boesch, of Warsaw, arrived in the city yesterday by private conveyance. He says the wheat in Benton and Pettis counties is looking remarkably well, but the corn in Benton lays over that of Pettis. Mr. Boesch also says the democracy of Benton are all broken up over the work of the convention last Saturday week, and there are not a few who are open in the assertion that Mr. Cosgrove was treated shamefully. That there will be hades to pay in the near future, there is scarcely a doubt.

A Good Deal of Sickness.

"There is a good deal of sickness in the city at present," remarked a well-known physician yesterday. "It is nothing serious, however, being mostly dysentery and malaria."

"Yes, there is a good deal more than is common at this time of year," spoke up Gus Fleischmann. "I know by the number of prescriptions I am called upon to fill. Half of the city seems to be under the weather, but a couple of doses of medicine generally brings them around all right."

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York, N. Y.

SEDALIA'S BANKS.

National Bank Examiner Forman Pronounces Them in a Prosperous Condition.

H. A. Forman, of Duquoin, Ill., national bank examiner, concluded his labors here yesterday and started for Moberly. Mr. Forman informed a BAZOO reporter that he found the three banks here that came within his jurisdiction—Citizens' and First and Third National—in a truly prosperous condition, there being no cause for complaint whatever.

Mr. Forman is the first democratic examiner that ever visited Sedalia, all former ones being republicans. At the time of making application for the position, Mr. F. was cashier of a bank at Duquoin. Through the influence of Hon. Wm. Morrison he received the appointment, and entered upon the discharge of his duties a short time ago. His territory embraces Missouri and Illinois, and once each year he will examine into the condition of fifty national banks in the former state and seventy in the latter.

"He understands his business even to the most minute details," said Adam Ittel, cashier of the Citizens' bank, yesterday, "and I never met a more genial gentleman."

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

EXCELLENT RESULT. Dr. J. L. Willis, Eliot, Me., says: "Horsford's Acid Phosphate gives most excellent results."

THE JUDICIAL CONTEST.

Meeting of the Criminal Court, Judicial Executive Committee Yesterday.

The executive committee of the criminal court judicial circuit for Pettis, Saline, Lafayette and Johnson counties met at the county recorder's office in this city yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. There were present Hon. Jeff Whitsett, of Johnson county, W. B. Steele, of Lafayette county, and John W. Conner, of Pettis county. Mr. Conner held the proxy of Mr. Rector, of Saline county.

The committee was called to order by Hon. Jeff Whitsett, chairman, and John W. Conner officiated as secretary.

The principal question before the committee was the selection of the time, place and manner of nominating a democratic candidate for judge of the criminal court, for the counties named. There was a decided difference of opinion among the members of the committee as to the proper mode of making the nomination, notwithstanding the fact that Judge J. E. Ryland, the present incumbent, thus far has no opposition for a re-nomination. Messrs. Steele, of Lafayette and Rector, of Saline, are strongly in favor of a primary election. Mr. Conner, of Pettis, is equally as enthusiastic in favor of the convention plan, while Mr. Whitsett, of Johnson, is as yet non-committal.

The committee was unable to come to a decision, and as an effort is being made to revoke the order of the executive committee for the circuit court judicial district, ordering a primary election July 17th, several members were in favor of waiting until that question is settled.

The committee, without coming to any definite understanding, adjourned to meet at the same place two weeks hence.

DAMAGES DEMANDED.

Capt. Sewell W. Smith Proposes to Sue the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Capt. Sewell W. Smith, editor of the Warsaw Times, whose son, Frank, died in New Mexico several days ago, thus necessitating the sending of a number of telegrams by the agonized father, pays his respects to the Western Union Telegraph company, as follows, in the last issue of his paper:

Of the many telegrams sent in reply to those received from there over the Western Union lines, only one seems to have been received, and that four hours after its arrival at Albuquerque, though ever precaution had been taken to insure prompt delivery. Some of the employees at both ends of the line seem to have been as negligent of their plainest duties as they were insolent, overbearing and inhuman. That their acts, and the resulting effects, will be tolerated by those who have suffered by them, is not reasonable to expect, and preliminaries, with a view to an early suit, have already been commenced, in order that the question may be tested whether the public is to be at the mercy of a set of harpies as devoid of courtesy as they are of the common principles of decency.

Seriously Ill.

Col. B. F. Dowler, superintendent of the Sedalia Driving park, formerly Siche's park, has been quite seriously ill for some days past. Although he endures a great deal of suffering, his condition is not considered critical. Col. Dowler is a victim of the asthma and in damp weather suffers more than at other times.

LOST HIS LUCRE.

He Squealed Like a Stuck Pig, However, and Refused to Pay the Bet.

Charlie Bachman, the commercial tourist for A. Block & Co., clothiers, Cincinnati, Ohio, was the cause of Sam N. Lewis getting up on his ear yesterday, and was without cause, either.

Friday evening Bachman dropped into the store of Weigel & Kohn, and the conversation drifted upon the feats accomplished by pedestrians. Bachman's pretensions in this particular line were so ridiculous that the remainder of the party gave him the laugh, to his great disgust.

"You may talk as much as you please," angrily exclaimed Bachman, "but I have $20 that says I can cover forty-five miles between the hours of 5 a. m. and 6 p. m."

"Forty-five h—ades!" fairly yelled Weigel. "I've got $20 that says you can't."

"I'll go you, and I'll win your money," replied Bachman, and there-with articles of agreement were entered into for the walk. It was to take place at Siche's park yesterday, and Sam N. Lewis was chosen as referee. All the parties were apparently in the best of faith, and when they parted for the night the signatures of Weigel & Kohn and Bachman were attached to the articles of agreement. It was to be a heel and toe walk, and Lewis was to be on hand with liquid refreshments at the completion of each mile.

At 4:30 a. m. yesterday Lewis materialized at the park, but the great pedestrian had not arrived. The appointed hour, 5 a. m., also passed, and Bachman was still missing, and Lewis began to grow dubious. He remained an hour longer and then returned to the city, completely disgusted and satisfied that the match was off.

On hearing of what had transpired, or rather what had not transpired, Weigel & Kohn called upon Bachman for the $20 he had entered into an agreement to pay, but he positively declined to come down with the scads, and so the matter was allowed to stand. It appears to have been a square case of back down on the part of Bachman, and it was as little as he could have done to have paid the amount of the wager.

The most interesting thing about the Columbia commencement was the conferring of a degree on a woman—the first incident of the kind in the history of the venerable institution.

The woman thus distinguished is Miss Winifred Edgerton, a graduate of Wellesley. She was already a Bachelor of Arts; now she is a Doctor of Philosophy. It is safe to predict that she leads what is to be destined a long line of women on whom degrees will hereafter be bestowed by Columbia.—New York Tribune.
